

LIGHTHOUSE
PREGNANCY CENTER

Dear Friends of Lighthouse, A college student approached our table at the Community Fair at Western State Colorado University this month and shared how his grandmother had become pregnant at 15 years of age. He spoke of how thankful he was that she had her baby even though it had been a very difficult time for her. This happy young man was an encouraging reminder of how generations are impacted by the services we, and other centers like ours, provide.
